The sad news of the death of Mrs. Myrtle (Sprague) Shay of Montpelier was received here Saturday. Mrs. Shay was a former Chelsea girl, and the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Sprague, who reside on the West Hill. She is survived by a little daughter, about ten years old, who is left an orphan. Mr. Shay, the father and husband, having died during the past year. Besides the daughter, the deceased is survived by the father and mother, one brother, Andrew I. Sprague, and one sister, Mrs. Charles Goodwin, all of this town, who have the deep sympathy of a large circle of friends in their great affliction.

The December term of Orange county court closed Monday forenoon, and a detailed account of the work of the term will appear a little later. The work of the morning before the final adjournment was the following appointments, made by the judges, county road commissioners, J. D. Denison of Randolph, James R. McLam of Topsham, and William Paul of West Fairlee; commissioners of jail delivery, Alva W. Whitney, J. A. R. Corwin and Walter H. Emery, all of Chelsea; county probation officer, Sheriff W. H. Sprague of Chelsea, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge George L. Stow. The terms of the road commissioners are for one year, jail commission for two years, and probation officer, during the pleasure of the court.

PILES

"I have suffered with piles for thirty-six years. One year ago I saw Dr. J. H. Bolster's advertisement for Cascarets. I bought a box and used it. The piles began to disappear and at the end of six weeks they did not trouble me at all. Cascarets have done wonders for me. I am entirely cured and feel like a new man." George Snyder, Napoleon, O.

The Best Food to Make Hens Lay.

The extremely high prices that have prevailed for eggs during the past few years have emphasized more than ever the need of some food to make hens lay in cold weather. The best is none too good, especially when it can be obtained at a moderate price. G. H. Whirland of Valcour, N. Y., expresses his ideas on the subject in the following letter. He says: "I think 'Page's Perfect Poultry Food' is the best food to make hens lay that is on the market."

Any one sending his address on a postal card to C. S. Page, Hyde Park, Vt., and mentioning this paper, will receive by mail, free, postpaid, a sample package of "Page's Perfect Poultry Food."
